* These individuals have received a certificate issued by the County of Riverside Planning Department as having completed a Cultural Sensitivity Training/Professional Education Program requirement, and have demonstrated their professional qualifications, that allows them to sign and certify reports submitted to the County. To be considered professionally qualified one must demonstrate that they meet the Secretary of the Interior's (SOI) criteria, or comparable, for Professional Qualifications for Archaeology and demonstrate experience in Riverside County. Current registration by the Registry of Professional Archaeologists (RPA) is also accepted. Petitions for consideration of professional listing are accepted on an individual basis. Please contact the County Archaeologist for further information about this process. The training certification requirement does not apply to professional architectural historians at this time; however, professional qualifications must be demonstrated and accepted by the County for all consultants on this list.
